

NJSHA Committee Report – January 2017

AAC Committee:

Next meeting will be 2/15 at 7:30pm by conference call. AAC Committee meetings are held the 2nd week of even months

CE Committee:

CE Welcomes Marisa Brunner as CE Assistant Chair. 2. CE partners with County Speech-Hearing Associations: Would your County Association desire to partner with NJSHA in providing valuable professional development? Contact Dawn info@njsha.org. 3. NJSHA CE partners with Infant Mental Health for a collaborative inter professional webinar. Watch for details.

Convention Committee:

Come be a part of the 2017 NJSHA Convention and volunteer.
Room moderators are needed for each session.
Contact the NJSHA office at info@NJSHA.org

Honors & Awards - Committee:

Nominate a colleague or program and give them the recognition they deserve.

Multicultural Committee:

The Multicultural Issues Committee is actively seeking new members. If you have questions or are interested in joining the committee, please contact Courtney Caruso at mic.njsha@gmail.com.

SEALS Committee:

ASHA's Schools Connect (taking place in New Orleans) July 7-9, 2017 will be a great conference. ASHA has expanded its call for papers process to allow for more people to do one-hour sessions or poster sessions with the context of the Schools Connect Conference.

It is currently opened until February 15, 2017. We hope that many of you would apply to share your knowledge and expertise!

Hot Topics: ESSA, Autism, Universal Licensing, USDOE will focus on Results Driving Accountability rather compliance issues of students